

Jackson County Youth Fair

Friends of the Fair Livestock Show--Friday, October 11, 2024

Sponsored by Davis Jewelry, Owners Kevin and Marcy Davis,
Dennis and Leslie Kallus Family, Atkinson Associates and Edna Lions Club

This event is open to Junior High and High School Special Needs Students.

Participants will travel by School Sponsored Transportation Friday morning to Main Event Center and will meet their Fair Exhibitor Friend there.

Livestock Show Event starts at 10:30am in the Auction Arena.

This is an event to allow students the opportunity to participate in the county fair's Livestock Show and to gain the experience of showing an animal in the show arena.

Goats and lambs will be haltered and participants will receive assistance by exhibitors.

Contestants are asked to register by Monday, October 9, so that animals and fair exhibitors can be prepared. Appropriate attire (shirt, jeans, and closed toe shoes must be worn by participants for safety)

All participants will receive an award and be acknowledged.

Name: _____

Phone: _____ Age: _____ Circle Shirt Size: YL AS AM AL 2XL 3XL

School: _____ Circle One: Lamb or Goat

For any questions, you may contact Marcy at 361-782-5009

Email: mj.davis95@yahoo.com Please return form back to Director of Special Education at 606 S. Gilbert St. Edna, TX 77957 or call 361-782-6137.

I hereby agree not to hold responsible the fair association, the rodeo committee, sponsors, or any other involved with the Jackson County Fair for any damages or bodily injury while participating in the Friends of the Fair Livestock Show. I give permission for my minor child to participate in the Friends of the Fair Livestock Show.